Renaissance and ClassLink Announce Alliance for Single Sign-On Solution

Partnership paves way to faster, easier access to education providers with OneClick technology

WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis. (August 11, 2016) – Renaissance, the leader in K-12 learning analytics, is pleased to announce a major new alliance with ClassLink, the leader in single sign-on and rostering solutions for schools. The partnership paves the way to faster, easier access to one of the most trusted education providers and offers millions of educators and students secure, OneClick access to Renaissance solutions.

ClassLink's OneClick delivers single sign-on to online cloud-based resources, such as the Renaissance platform, and to files, whether they are stored in the cloud, on a device, or on the school network. With more than 3,000 single sign-on connectors, ClassLink has brought together more resources than all other single sign-on platforms combined.

“Renaissance is very excited to work with ClassLink's OneClick single sign-on to support districts in our joint commitment to solving real problems for educators by simplifying sign-on for student and teachers while maintaining the preeminent levels of security and privacy of data,” said Paula O' Gorman, SVP of strategic partnerships at Renaissance Learning.

ClassLink CEO Berj Akian echoed the sentiments of O'Gorman. “Renaissance Learning is a standout among cloud-based assessment and learning analytics providers. Their commitment to working with ClassLink and our single sign-on solution demonstrates how companies can work together in ways that benefit everyone, including schools, publishers, and technology providers.”

Renaissance and ClassLink collaborated with district leaders to build the functionality, making it easy for all schools to access Renaissance solutions from OneClick.
